

ASIAN HUNTING
as of April 6, 2009

In an ongoing, uneven struggle to find space for all the books in my library without losing the ability to maneuver through the house, I have decided to sell those volumes in my collection relating to Asian sport and natural history. You will also find a few books focusing on other geographical locales. They are listed, in alphabetical order by author, below. Postage is $5 for the first volume and $2.50 for subsequent ones to a maximum of $10. That does not include insurance, which I strongly recommend.

1. R. D. T. Alexander and A. Martin-Leake, Some Signposts to Shikar. Calcutta: Bengal Nagpur Railway magazine, 1932. Hardback (rebound in what appears to be full leather, although it could be nicely disguised buckram, with gilt printing on spine). [xiv], 127 pages. Illus. Fine. Rare. $275.
2. Salim Ali, The Book of Indian Birds. Bombay: Bombay Natural History society, 1946. 4th printing. Bound in flexible leather. XI, 440 pages. Illus (including color plates). Very good. $10.
